Complaints after man left bleeding in police struggle

EXCLUSIVE

BY JONATHAN REILLY
jonathan.reilly@HPnorthants.co.uk

COMPLAINTS have been made to Northamptonshire Police over the way the force 'over-reacted' when arresting a man.

Residents in Prentice Court, Northampton have said that police 'over-reacted' when arresting Barry Battisson, 28, which left him with a large gash to his head. Two police officers were also injured in the struggle.

Police have confirmed that pepper spray and batons were used to subdue Mr Battisson during his arrest.

The altercation originally occurred after Mr Battisson argued with police over a bike ramp being constructed by his brother-in-law, Dudley Raymond.

Mr Raymond said: "For two months I have been clearing this area of rubbish and making it an area for the kids to play.

"I was digging with a pickaxe when the police approached me and asked me what I was doing. I dropped the axe when they came to speak to me and then Barry came out to tell them to leave me alone.

"He might have sworn at them but he wasn't being aggressive or threatening. He's a big man so I can understand that they might have felt intimidated but they over-reacted big-time.

"All of this happened over literally dirt in the ground."

A video of the incident was passed to the Herald & Post by locals who witnessed the arrest.

The video shows Mr Battisson, pictured, being struck by at least one officer with a baton, while being wrestled to the ground.

Mr Raymond can also be seen being forced to the ground by another two officers. The video shows at least two vehicles and five officers at the scene.

A number of residents have subsequently filed complaints to the Force.

A police spokesman said: "An altercation took place and an officer used PAVA spray and effected baton strikes in an attempt to subdue a man.

"A struggle ensued during the baton strikes, as a result of which one officer sustained a broken finger, another officer a bruised arm and the man a cut to his head.

"We can confirm we have received complaints regarding the arrest of the man on Monday. The matter has now been forwarded to the Force's Professional Standards department.

"A man arrested in connection with an assault on a police officer in Northampton has been bailed pending further enquiries."

Gladys, 106, marks a milestone

A NORTHAMPTON woman celebrated her 106th birthday yesterday with a special visit from the Mayor.

Gladys Clarke, who lives at Bethany Homestead care home in Kingsley Road, has always lived in the area.

Born and married in Long Buckby, she worked for many years for Boots, the pharmacists.

Mrs Clarke said: "I'm very excited to be turning 21, five times. I want to thank everyone who has helped organise such a wonderful day. Friends, family and everyone else.

"I've been asked so many times what the secret to a long life is and my answer every time is I'm still trying to find out."

Chief to lead tributes to Pro-Tect director

BY JONATHAN REILLY
jonathan.reilly@HPnorthants.co.uk

THE funeral of decorated policeman and director of Pro-Tect systems, Peter Boatman, is taking place today.

The service, at St Matthew's Church in Kingsley, was due to be attended by friends, family and police officers.

It is expected to last around an hour and will include a reading by current chief constable Adrian Lee.

Following the service the cortege will pass Campbell Square police station, where the force flag will be flown at half mast and a guard of honour will be led in salute by chief superintendent Paul Fell. Mr Boatman was the director of Pro-Tect Systems, the county company that supplied Taser stun guns to the home office.

He was found dead at his home two weeks ago, only a week after the company had its licence revoked for selling the weapons directly to Northumbria Police force, which used the stun guns in the hunt for gunman Raoul Moat.

Northamptonshire Police, who were investigating Pro-Tect systems regarding the sale of the weapons, have also announced that in light of Mr Boatman's death it is not in the public interest to take further action on the company.

Operations superintendent Sean Bell, protective services command said: "Northamptonshire Police have concluded their investigation into the supply of X12 Taser guns and XREP ammunitions by Daventry-based Pro-Tect Systems Limited.

"The investigation identified that offences against the Firearms Act 1968 had been committed.

"However, taking into account all of the available evidence, including the recent tragic death of operations director Peter Boatman, we have concluded that it is not in the public interest to take any action against Pro-Tect Systems Limited and the investigation has now been closed."

Motorists checked up on in week of action

POLICE in the north of Northampton have been out and about this week to tackle a wide range of issues in the community.

On Tuesday they were checking traffic in three locations in the area.

This involved monitoring motorists' speeds and random checks on passing cars.

Later this week the police will attend Northampton College to give out crime prevention advice and will also have an environmental clean up on Coppice Drive.

Throughout Saturday and Sunday, officers will conduct patrols in hotspot areas known for anti-social behaviour.

Tracy Moore, inspector for Northampton North, said: "What we are doing here is policing in a way that responds to the needs of the community.

"We have often been asked by local residents to have a high presence in areas to tackle issues such as motoring offences and anti-social behaviour.

"In this area alone burglaries are down 21 per cent and so are robberies by 38 per cent.

"We would like to continue to work with our partners and the local community to reduce crime in North Northampton but we can only do that with the help of local people.

"If anyone has any information or concerns about crime in their area I would urge them to contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111."

Store fined after mouse droppings found in food

A TESCO supermarket has been fined £30,000 after pleading guilty to four food hygiene offences.

The store, on Old Tiffield Road, Towcester, was also ordered to pay £9,500 in costs by Towcester Magistrates' Court last week.

South Northamptonshire Council prosecuted Tesco following a thorough investigation into the store's food hygiene practices.

Council food safety officers were initially alerted after a member of the public complained in July 2009 that she had been sold food items contaminated by mouse droppings.

Officers discovered poor standards of cleanliness with items of gnawed food, dirt, food debris, packaging and mouse droppings found on shelves.

It was found that there was an infestation of mice in certain areas of the store when a food safety officer caught a live mouse on the shop floor.

One aisle in particular was closed until the area was free from mice.

Councillor Rebecca Breese, portfolio holder for environment and waste management, said: "This is another good example of how seriously the council treats breaches of food hygiene rules and regulations and the rigorous action we take against companies, big or small, that fail to comply with them.

"This prosecution sends out a strong message that should public health be threatened in any way, we will respond in a timely and appropriate."

Uni's backing for 'no limit' on fees

BY JONATHAN REILLY
jonathan.reilly@HPnorthants.co.uk

THE University of Northampton has welcomed an independent report by the Government that recommends there be no limit to the fees charged for higher education.

The Browne report, released on Tuesday, concluded that the UK needed to protect its higher education services with investment in institutions while maintaining choice for students.

It proposes that there should be 'no single fixed price' for university fees.

Currently the fees which can be charged is capped at £3,225.

The document also suggests part-time students should get the same support as those in full-time education.

The report also outlines the way students should pay back their loans only after they earn £21,000 or above, which is up from the current £15,000.

Peter Bush, deputy to the vice chancellor at the university, said: "We are cautiously optimistic about several of the key recommendations of the Browne review, not least the suggestion that students do not pay for tuition fees, only graduates do and only then if they are successful.

"Another potential positive is that part-time students will receive the same levels of financial support as full-time students, a move which would prove beneficial to those requiring greater flexibility around their home, work and study commitments. At the present time, if Lord Browne's recommendations are accepted by the Government, it is highly likely that the University of Northampton's fees will have to increase.

"However, it is impossible for us to say exactly when and by how much, until we see the outcome of the Government's Comprehensive Spending Review (CSR) later this month on October 20."

The National Union of Students (NUS) does not believe the report suggests the best way to finance universities.

Aaron Porter, NUS president, said: "If adopted, Lord Browne's review would hand universities a blank cheque and force the next generation to pick up the tab for devastating cuts to higher education. The only thing students and their families would stand to gain from higher fees would be higher debts.

"Any graduate contributions to universities should be determined by earnings in the real world after graduation, not fixed prices based on unreliable and misleading guesswork about average salaries."

Great News for Motorists!

Both private and business drivers in the area have become the latest in the country to benefit from the hugely successful national Hometyre brand.

Operator John Butterworth has recently launched his new business and is providing the levels of service already experienced by countless other happy customers across the UK.

Working from arguably the finest equipped mobile service vehicle on the roads today, John has received comprehensive training along the way. He is now a regular sight on the roads, driveways and office car parks in his Hometyre Van.

John collects his fully fitted Hometyre vehicle from Andrew Scholes, Operations Director of Hometyre Group Ltd

So what is the service?
Well, Hometyre does pretty much what it says on the van! Tyre replacement & repair, wheel balancing and wheel alignment. There is no call out charge.

John said, "I am delighted to invest in this opportunity of running my own business. We cater for all vehicles including car, 4x4, caravan and light commercial vehicles, Hometyre bring the entire fitting centre direct to your door: home or work.

It's a great way to have those worn tyres replaced without the need to leave the house or office. A simple phone call to our dedicated customer care centre and you'll be amazed how well priced, simple and effective our system is."

Tour set to make sure voices are heard at election

PEOPLE are being urged not to forget to register to vote before the November 26 deadline.

Northampton Borough Council will be using a giant, mobile advertisement which will tour the town this weekend reminding people to make sure their voice is heard in the borough council and parish elections in May 2011.

People passing the advertising van may receive a Bluetooth message on their phone to remind them that they need to be registered.

The borough council has already sent out registration forms to every home in the town.

Reminder letters have also been sent out to 42,000 properties.

Canvassers will then visit the homes of people who have not responded during November.

People who do not register will not only be unable to vote but also will have difficulty in obtaining credit for anything from mobile phones to mortgages.

Further advice about how to register to vote is available from the electoral services team on 01604 837111 and on the Northampton Borough Council website www.northampton.gov.uk

The Tories should listen to their leader over cut plans

THE Conservative administration at County Hall has steamrollered through plans to massively increase charges for vulnerable people who need help.

Transport charges will go up by 300 per cent, leaving elderly and vulnerable people trapped in their homes.

The Conservatives are attempting to kill off the meals on wheels service by raising the cost to £6.26 for newcomers. Other services will face a 15 per cent increase. The consultation was a sham and both flawed and ignored.

The Liberal Democrats had tried to make the Conservatives think again but the Conservatives shut down the debate and bloc-voted to continue this ruthless and brutal attack on the most vulnerable.

If Northamptonshire Conservatives will not listen to the people most affected by these massive hikes, maybe they should listen to David Cameron, who himself said that the vulnerable should be protected.

Or perhaps the Northamptonshire Conservatives are still the nasty party?

No complaints about my treatment at NGH

OVER the years I have frequently read in the media criticism about the terrible state of our national health service but as I have been lucky during my 81 years on this earth and never required hospital treatment, these reports really did not have any significance for me.

However the years are obviously catching up with me and I have found it necessary to attend the local General Hospital recently for various small medical problems. In each and every department attended, I have received nothing but the best attention and excellent treatment.

During the past week it has been necessary to have a cataract removal, which obviously raised a little apprehension but this was soon obliterated by the attention received at the eye unit.

The staff there can only be described as magnificent, their attention to the smallest detail meticulous and the concern they show towards all patients has to be seen to be believed and I doubt if there is a private hospital anywhere in the country which could surpass this unit.

Miss Kerr, the consultant ophthalmic surgeon and every single member of her staff deserve the highest accolade for their dedication and especially my sincere thanks for their unbelievable service. Yes my eyesight now is fantastic.

Last week at the Conservative Party Conference, David Cameron the Prime Minister in his speech, berated the years in power of the Labour Party and said that they had left the country nothing but debt, nothing but problems and nothing of note.

You are wrong Mr Cameron, if nothing else they have ensured that we have the finest health service in the world.

We are at risk of losing this great service

THE Brookside Residents' Council heard at our last meeting of the eminent closure of the YMCA, due to cutbacks from the County Council.

This charity, which has played an important part in our town for many years, has helped vulnerable youngsters of 16+ who have been in care, thrown out of their home, or run away to escape abuse, by providing not only a roof over their heads but full time support to help them budget and learn the skills for independent living.

When youngsters do not have this support, as we have seen in the past, they often create anti-social behaviour and get caught up in the drug scene or struggle to maintain their tenancies.

YMCA was in the process of setting up another house in Upton as the need was outstripping what they could provide at St John's House in the town centre.

Surely prevention is better and cheaper than cure. Also YMCA has for many years provided a Mobile Youth Project, namely the familiar blue bus, which goes to a different deprived estate each night to provide activities for youngsters, who might otherwise roam the streets causing trouble.

We see them every Tuesday in Old Barn Court.

They also take families on holidays who wouldn't be able to afford them and help parents with parenting skills.

The YMCA provides fully trained youth workers to do outreach work to engage with young people on the streets to help combat anti-social behaviour.

Our Brookside Residents' Council is really upset by this false economy step that the County Council has taken and urge any organisations, businesses and funders to support the YMCA, as otherwise by the end of the month we will lose one of the most important youth providers in Northampton.

Councillor hits out at plans to cut pay

BY JONATHAN REILLY
jonathan.reilly@HPnorthants.co.uk

AN independent councillor has slammed the way that two local authorities have approached reviewing the pay of low paid staff.

Cllr Tony Clarke, who sits as an independent on the borough and county councils, believes both have targeted the lowest paid workers to make cuts.

He has also slated the Conservative and Liberal Democrats, who run the county council and borough council respectively, for both imposing the pay review when in power and opposing it when in opposition.

Cllr Clarke said: "I sit in both chambers of the councils, so I get a good view of the way both are run.

"When I go to the Guildhall I see Cllr David Palethorpe (Conservative) arguing against Cllr Brian Hoare (Lib Dem) and then I walk over to County Hall to see Cllr Brendan Glynane (Lib Dem) arguing against exactly the same policy to Cllr Jim Harker (Conservative)."

Cllr Clarke has also hit out after hearing top executives in both organisations who, despite being the highest paid members, have not been included in the pay review.

Cllr Tony Clarke

He said: "I think 99 per cent of the public will want to know why a chief executive can earn nearly £200,000 and it is the low level workers who maybe get paid £11,000 or £12,000 a year who have to take the cut.

"The way that things are going there will be teaching assistants and carers losing £3,000 to £4,000 a year who would be better off living off benefits.

"There isn't a need for so many well paid middle managers and the money saved could go on safeguarding the lowest paid and keeping the quality of services provided."

The Unison Union at the borough council refused to comment to the Herald & Post over the pay cuts last week and Cllr Clarke believes that they should state their position publicly.

Cllr Clarke said: "I can understand the unions not wanting to give too much away as they will not want to lay their cards on the table too early, which might jeopardise any negotiations.

"However I would expect them to announce publicly that they are against these cuts to pay."

When Choosing a Funeral Director...

The main questions you will have is how will I know which one is right for me?

Who is capable of providing the advice and support I need?

Who understands my needs to make this a personal service for my loved one?

And who will give me the confidence of knowing my loved one is in safe hands?

You can be assured that we offer the individual care and support that only an independent funeral director can offer. We have both the commitment and experience to ensure that you and your loved one are indeed in safe hands.

MP's concern over care home deaths

BY JONATHAN REILLY
jonathan.reilly@HPnorthants.co.uk

Parkside House

BRIAN Binley, MP for Northampton South, has slammed the Care Quality Commission's review into the deaths of residents at a care home in Northampton.

The review, published last week, into Parkside House in St Matthews Parade, found that five deaths were from causes 'considered to be consistent with the effects of severe neglect'.

This resulted in the deaths of five dementia residents, who were aged between 83 and 100 between July and August 2009.

Mr Binley said: "The bed sores were of the fourth degree and while I do not pretend to be a medical man, I do know that is very serious.

"In this case it caused blood poisoning and rotting flesh, which produced a smell that was highly noticeable. Yet no one did anything about it. The public needs to know why.

"To that end, I have written to the Health Secretary Andrew Lansley.

"The CQC is a quango, and the public need to be reassured that care homes are just that - providing safe and secure care and accommodation for their residents.

"There are people who have very difficult decisions to make regarding the care of elderly relatives and they must have confidence in the option of putting a loved one in a care home.

"The coroner's office also has questions to ask.

"It is the last line of defence and protection for the public.

"They - the coroners - saw some very disturbing images and they need to question why five people died from level four bed sores.

"The public need to be totally confident and this undermines that.

"I give my sincere sympathy to the relatives.

"If I can be of any help to them, then I urge them to contact my office."

BMW centre could bring in new jobs

BY JONATHAN REILLY
jonathan.reilly@HPnorthants.co.uk

HUNDREDS of new jobs could be created in Northampton by the car maker BMW.

The German car company announced this week that it has submitted planning permission for a 457,546 square foot purpose built warehouse at ProLogis Park, Pineham.

The planning application for the new building will be submitted to West Northamptonshire Development Corporation (WNDC) in the coming days and the company believe the distribution centre will create up to 200 new jobs.

The warehouse has been pencilled to open in January 2012, when it will become the BMW Group's regional distribution centre delivering parts to BMW, Mini, Rolls-Royce Motor Cars and BMW motorcycle dealers throughout the UK and Ireland.

Andrew Griffiths, MD of ProLogis UK, commented: "We are delighted to have signed this new build-to-suit agreement with BMW.

"This transaction reinforces our leading position in the build-to-suit market where we have signed several deals this year both in the UK and across Europe. It is also testament to the strength of our customer relationships and our ability to deliver high quality, sustainable buildings, tailored to their ongoing needs. We look forward to working closely with BMW and to playing our part in enabling further economic development in the Northamptonshire region with the creation of significant new employment opportunities."

Conker king Ray is back for more

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrence.john@HPnorthants.co.uk

THE World Conker Champion believes luck must have been on his side as he took the title for a second time.

Ray Kellock, 64, from Rushden, was crowned World Champion on Sunday at the contest in Polebrook, Northants.

And he paraded his skills to the nation this week when he appeared on Daybreak on ITV.

On Tuesday, Mr Kellock played conkers live on television against presenter Adrian Chiles.

In 2008, Mr Kellock won the crown at his first attempt and his latest victory was his third time of entering the competition.

Being a double world champion is not something he expected and was shocked when he won it for the first time two years ago.

He said: "I think it is luck the eight conkers you are given stay strong while you see others going splat.

"I think it is down to luck and obviously being able to hit the other conker."

Mr Kellock said on Monday he had received phone calls throughout the day from his daughter saying there were lots of articles about him.

He added: "Having won the title is really very good.

"It is an achievement to play this many games and come through it at the end. I am going to enter next year as I would like to win the title back-to-back."

Wendy Bradford from Brixworth was named ladies' champion.

Air ambulance lands in Kingsthorpe to aid pedestrian

A WOMAN in her 70s was air-lifted to hospital after she was hit by a motorbike on Sunday in Kingsthorpe.

Police are appealing for witnesses after the 79-year-old was injured when she attempted to cross the road from the motorcyclist's nearside.

The woman was taken by air ambulance to Walsgrave Hospital in Coventry where she remains in a critical condition.

The white and blue Suzuki GSX R600 motorcycle was travelling north along the Harborough Road in the area known as the Kingsthorpe front at 12.20pm.

A 22-year-old Northampton man has been arrested in connection with dangerous driving. He has been released on police bail pending further enquiries.

Anyone with information, or who witnessed this incident, is asked to contact the Drivewatch Hotline on 0800 174615, or send an SMS text to 07765 637201.

Mystery surrounds bruises on woman, 98

BY JONATHAN REILLY
jonathan.reilly@HPnorthants.co.uk

POLICE are investigating whether a 98-year-old woman from Nether Heyford was attacked after her son discovered serious bruises on her.

She was taken to hospital on Friday after her son spotted her injuries at her home in Church Lane.

The woman was taken to Northampton General Hospital and police were called after an assessment revealed the bruising was possibly consistent with her having been subjected to an assault.

Police would like to hear from anybody who thinks they may have seen any suspicious activity in Church Lane on Friday or in the days leading up to it.

Witnesses to this incident, or anyone with information, should call Northamptonshire Police on 03000 111 222.

Alternatively, people can give information anonymously to Crimestoppers by calling 0800 555 111.

Owner distraught as her pet dogs die

BY JONATHAN REILLY
jonathan.reilly@HPnorthants.co.uk

A DOG owner is appealing for information over fears her two pets were poisoned.

Heartbroken, Catherine Powell, 34, of Grange Park and the RSPCA are urging people to get in touch after the dogs' deaths.

Ms Powell noticed that her pet dog Flex was being violently sick in mid-August and was taken to the vets immediately. Despite the best effort of the staff, he died on August 19.

A post mortem revealed that Flex had died after his liver failed and then filled with blood but the vet also found cancerous tumours so it was initially thought this could have been a cause of his symptoms, as he was ten years old.

However, three weeks later on September 8, Catherine's second dog, Oscar, who was only three, also started to become violently sick. He was rushed to the same vet but died two days later.

A post mortem found that both dogs had the same cause of death but the exact cause cannot be found out because the tests are too expensive.

Ms Powell said: "It is absolutely heartbreaking to think that both my dogs could have been poisoned deliberately. There just isn't another explanation for it, there was nothing at home which could have caused this and they were never let out on their own.

LOSS: One of Catherine Powell's dogs

"If we asked for ten separate tests it would cost £400 and I don't have that kind of money.

"My partner and I are absolutely devastated to think that someone has done this to our beautiful dogs.

"They were wonderful family dogs and very friendly and not aggressive at all. I hope the public can help us with this appeal for information and help."

RSPCA inspector Damien Wooliscroft, who is investigating, said: "This is a very sad incident in which two dogs have died, our task is to find out whether or not this was deliberate and we would urge anyone with any information no matter how small to contact the RSPCA on 0300 1234 999."

MEN ASSAULT TEENAGER
A FOURTEEN-year-old boy was punched in the back of the head as he walked along Shakespeare Road in Northampton on Friday.

The victim hit out in self defence at which point the offender was joined by two others who assaulted him.

It took place between 8.15am and 8.45am and the offenders made off in the direction of the Racecourse.

All three were white and aged 20 to 30.

The first offender was of medium build, with dark coloured hair which was shaved down the sides, with an eastern European accent and was wearing dark coloured bottoms, a shiny padded coat and a flat link gold chain. The second offender was about 6ft tall, with short blonde/mousey hair. He had broad shoulders, possibly an eastern European accent and was wearing tracksuit bottoms and a jacket.

The third offender had fairly short dark brown/black hair, is of medium build, around 5ft 10 and was wearing a black/grey striped jumper with light coloured jeans.

Officers would like to speak to anyone with information.

FIRM'S GOOD SUPPORT
AN insurance broker has helped raise more than £2.5 million for charity.

Towergate Risk Solutions Northampton has been part of the team supporting good causes including special projects at Cancer Research UK, Great Ormond Street, the Hospice movement and the NSPCC.

It is also twinned with Cynthia Spencer Hospice.

Along with colleagues from Towergate's UK offices, the Northampton branch has worked with clients and colleagues to raise cash.

BOOST THE ORGAN FUND
AN arts and crafts fair will take place on Saturday, October 23 between 10.30am and 3pm at Greens Norton Church.

Light refreshments will be served. All proceeds will go towards the organ fund.

It's behind moo. . .

BY JODIE PARSONS
jodie.parsons@HPnorthants.co.uk

DESPITE going under the hammer, one of the lion pride is continuing to prowl.

The Pride of Northampton saw 40 decorated, life-size lion sculptures displayed on the streets of the town over the summer.

One, called Moosterious and painted in the style of a cow, refused to settle in one spot, instead preferring to roam.

It turned up at a number of locations including the Lift Tower and on the pitch at a Saints match.

Now the popular character, decorated by local artist Lee Burrows, is to star in panto, appearing in the Royal & Derngate's festive show Jack and the Beanstalk, alongside former X Factor finalist Ray Quinn.

The pride were auctioned off in September, raising more than £65,000 for Cynthia Spencer Hospice and the Born Free Foundation.

The panto runs from December 10 to January 9.

To book call 01604 624811.

Foster dives in with swimming scheme

BY JONATHAN REILLY
jonathan.reilly@HPnorthants.co.uk

FORMER world champion swimmer, Mark Foster, is helping locals get the most out of their swimming.

The recent Strictly Come Dancing star has teamed up with Esporta on Windingbrook Lane, Collingtree, to launch the Amateur Swimming Association's (ASA) partnership with the club.

The ASA initiative provides sessions to help those of all ages and levels get fit in the pool.

Foster said: "It's about inspiring people to swim and generally be more fit and healthy.

"Swimfit is fantastic because swimming shows people who use the gym how they can work the pool into their keep-fit routine.

"The number one advantage for parents is that swimming can save their children's lives.

"There are 32,000 miles of rivers in this country and the majority of holidays are somehow water-related, so to me it's a no-brainer to teach them how to swim.

"Swimming is also a lot of fun. It's great when you see people get in the water and their faces light up."

Esporta's Mags Pullen said: "We are delighted to be working with the ASA because they offer the best swimming programme around and we want to give our members the best possible learning experience."

Jobs on offer as Watford Gap improved

A REFURBISHMENT of Watford Gap on the M1 will lead to 30 new jobs.

Roadchef, one of the UK's leading Motorway Service Area (MSA) operators, has announced that it is recruiting new team members following a redevelopment of its catering and retail facilities.

Watford Gap, Britain's oldest MSA which opened in 1959, is set to be refurbished as part of the company's plan to develop its entire catering brand.

The new look site will be complete by December 15.

Roadchef is looking to recruit individuals with quick service restaurant, retail or customer service experience.

Successful applicants will join the company's 130-strong team.

Tony D'Souza, director of human resources and development at Roadchef, said: "The refurbishment of Watford Gap will undoubtedly bring more customers through the door, so to meet the increase in demand we have decided to recruit 30 new members of staff."

For further details contact Roadchef's recruitment line on 01959 562 960.

Dad attacks player over pitch bust-up

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@HPnorthants.co.uk

A FURIOUS dad ran onto the pitch in an under 16s football match and attacked a player who had knocked out his son.

Darren Tank, 39, reacted angrily when he saw his son punched in the face by an opponent as they rowed over a header.

Northampton Crown Court was told that although his 15-year-old son was unconscious on the ground, Tank ran past him and went for his attacker. The defendant saw fit to run out onto the pitch, past his unconscious son and leap onto the back of the youth who was being escorted away by the team manager and referee at the time," said prosecutor Stephen Crouch.

The boy suffered a stiff neck.

He has been dealt with separately.

Tank, of Armley Close, Long Buckby pleaded guilty to putting a person in fear of violence.

His son, who suffered injuries to his mouth, was playing in an under 16s match at Daventry Sports Ground when trouble broke out.

Adrienne Lucking, defending, said: "It was a moment of madness having seen his son knocked out."

Judge Richard Bray sentenced him to a two-year conditional discharge with £643 costs.

He said: "If you stay out of trouble during that time as I am sure you would wish to do, you will hear no more of this."

LAUGHS: Frankie Boyle, John Bishop and Sean Lock

It's a funny, funny world

COMEDY

NEXT week will offer laughter galore as not one but three comedians visit Northampton.

Demand means fans have already snapped up tickets as comedy continues to prove popular with audiences at Royal & Derngate.

First under the spotlight is Sean Lock with his brand new show Lockipedia, on Monday, October 18.

There are only very limited tickets available to see the star also known for his TV appearances on QI and 8 Out of 10 Cats. Tickets are £18.

Controversial comedian and former Mock The Week funnyman Frankie Boyle arrives in the town for two nights on October 19 and 20.

After his record-breaking tour in 2008, I Would Happily Punch Everyone of You in the Face is sold out, check for returns only.

John Bishop, whose TV appearances include Live at the Apollo and Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow, completes the comedy-feast on Friday, October 22.

Comedy heading to Royal & Derngate next month includes The Armstrong & Miller Show, Ardal O'Hanlon, Chris Addison and Al Murray.

This brand new show is also sold out, check for returns only.

ROYAL & DERNGATE NORTHAMPTON

MUSIC

MARBURG BACH CHOIR

Northampton and Wellingborough
Tomorrow and Saturday

ABOUT 45 singers from the twin town of Marburg will be greeted in Northampton today.

The Marburg Bach Choir arrived in Northampton yesterday and were due to be officially welcomed to the town by the Mayor, Councillor Marianne Taylor, at the Guildhall this morning.

Following a day spent visiting a number of Northampton's important landmark buildings and a tour of the boot and shoe collection in the museum, they will sing two concerts of sacred music.

Tomorrow they will perform in St Matthew's Church, Kettering Road, Northampton and on Saturday in St Mary's Church, Knox Road, Wellingborough. Both concerts start at 7.30pm.

The choir's programme on both occasions will include music by Britten, Elgar, Bruckner, Brahms and Mendelssohn.

The organist will be Richard McVeigh, assistant organist at Winchester Cathedral, who will also play two solos.

Admission to both concerts is free of charge but there will be a retiring collection to help cover expenses.

Award nods for theatre...

THEATRE

ROYAL & Derngate has been short-listed for two prestigious awards from the Theatrical Management Association (TMA).

The Northampton theatre has nominations in two categories for its acclaimed Young America productions.

Artistic director Laurie Sansom has been nominated as best director for both Beyond the Horizon and Spring Storm.

These two lesser known plays by Eugene O'Neill and Tennessee Williams respectively were presented as the theatre's Young America season and subsequently transferred to London's National Theatre for a four month sell-out run.

Chris Davey has been nominated for his work on Beyond the Horizon in the best lighting design category.

At last year's TMA awards Royal & Derngate scooped three honours.

The TMA Awards are the only national awards celebrating the best in regional theatre.

The winners will be announced at a ceremony in November.

■ A ROYAL & Derngate production is moving to London's West End.

Laurie Sansom

After an acclaimed run at the theatre this spring, End of the Rainbow, starring Tracie Bennett, which follows the final months of Judy Garland's life, is now going to be staged at London's Trafalgar Studios.

It opens on November 16 and is currently booking until March.

Bennett will again play Garland in this West End premiere of Peter Quilter's production.

For more details see http://www.greatknightfolkclub.co.uk

CHARITY

FIVE mums helped to raise £19,000 thanks to their charity shopping extravaganza.

The money from the event, held in September, will be distributed between the Northamptonshire branch of Macmillan Cancer Support and Helen & Douglas House Hospice in Oxford.

This was the tenth annual event held by the group of mothers who had gathered more than 60 stalls at Whittlebury Park.

With 650 visitors the group were delighted by the success and were told it was the best yet.

The £19,000 was £3,000 more than in 2009 and brings the total raised over the last five years to about £70,000.

The event originally started out as a coffee morning.

Chairwoman Sam Satchell said: "We are very proud to be able to contribute money to these two most worthwhile causes and are overwhelmed by the amount we are able to give this year."

WHAT'S ON

HARVEST FESTIVAL AND 85TH ANNIVERSARY
Park Avenue Methodist Church, Northampton
Saturday and Sunday

THE church is organising a special weekend to celebrate its 85th anniversary and the harvest festival.

On Saturday from 10am to noon there will be refreshments, a cake stall, children's fun, an anniversary video, live music by The Smooth Ones and a beautifully decorated church.

Admission is £1.

At 6.30pm there will be a harvest supper and anniversary celebration, plus music and entertainment. Tickets for this are £5.

All profits from the Saturday will be donated to the Macmillan Nurses and the Park Avenue Youth Worker Fund.

On Sunday at 10.30am there will be a service of thanksgiving marking 85 years and the harvest gathered in, led by Rev Michael John. There will be a retiring collection for the work of Christian Aid.

THEATRE

SOMEONE WHO'LL WATCH OVER ME
Playhouse Theatre, Clare Street, Northampton
Tuesday, October 19 to Saturday, October 23 at 7.45pm

MASQUE Theatre take to the stage again next week with this Frank McGuinness play.

The aptly-sized stage at the Playhouse Theatre brings home just how claustrophobic and terrifying incarceration must be and just what imagination, empathy and fear can do to people in confined spaces.

This is an amazing play from McGuinness which had great reviews on its first performance in 1992 and is as apt and up-to-date now as it was then.

Tickets are £8 and £7 concessions and can be bought on the door but people are advised to reserve in advance at tickets@masquetheatre.co.uk or visit/call at The Works in Adnitt Road, Northampton - 01604 472020.

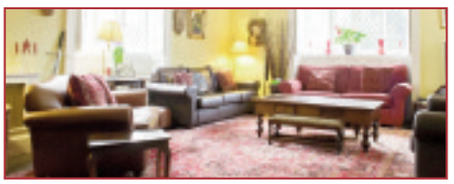
A Tudor home previously owned by the granddaughter of Shakespeare



The Manor, Great Doddington

THE Manor is a magnificent Grade I Listed Tudor, with Victorian extension, house originally built in 1510.

There are many features typical of the periods including inglenook fireplace, exposed beams, elm flooring, mullioned leaded windows, cellar and more, plus a separate self-contained cottage within the substantial grounds.

The historical interest in the property is uniquely enhanced by the fact that it was once owned by one John Barnard and his wife Elizabeth – the granddaughter of William Shakespeare.

Currently offering eight bedrooms, four receptions, two kitchen areas, two bathrooms, a cellar and a separate one bed cottage with additional attic room accommodation in the amazing gardens.

The spacious entrance hall leads off to the main lounge, dining room, snug, cellar entrance and inner hallway and features a Jacobean staircase to the upper floors.

The lounge retains the original Tudor fireplace and the bespoke kitchen not only has a four-oven aga but a Rangemaster hob, oven and plate warmer in support.

Three large bedrooms and two bathrooms are on the first floor, with bedrooms four to eight all on the second floor. Bedroom eight has planning permission in place for conversion to a further full size bathroom.

Outside there is parking for several cars off road and a selection of gardens are on three sides of the property.

Gough Lodge, Northampton

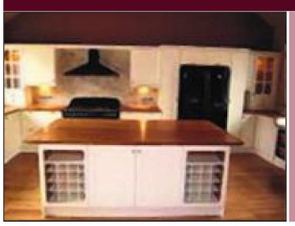
01604 624900

Milton Malsor

We are pleased to offer for sale this four double bedroom detached house built in 2005 by an individual architect. Benefits include UPVC double glazing, underfloor heating to the ground floor and two refitted ensuite shower rooms. The Lodge has a spacious and contemporary feel and offers a 'Smart' central vacuum system throughout and ventilation. Outside, the rear garden is private and provides access to a boiler room. The front garden has a large block paved driveway leading to a tandem length garage. The Lodge is an individual home which has been well maintained and designed to a high standard. We strongly recommended an early viewing.

£360,000

Broughton



This highly attractive property provides the ultimate in modern living within a charming period building (circa 1828) which has an interesting history to date having been a public house, antiques centre and more recently a family home. The accommodation comprises entrance lobby, reception/dining, cloakroom/WC, lounge, kitchen/breakfast room, lower ground floor reception room/study, lower ground floor games room, master bedroom with ensuite shower room, two further bedrooms, family bathroom, off road parking, outbuildings, and rear garden.

£375,000

Harpole

The property stands on a large plot at the edge of the village with lovely countryside views that can be appreciated from all forward facing rooms. This detached house is set back from the road behind a large gravelled driveway with plenty of parking together with an integral garage and also boasting a good sized flat rear garden which extends to approximately 70ft in length. Internally, there are three light and airy reception rooms, a kitchen/breakfast room overlooking the rear garden, utility room and downstairs cloakroom/WC. To the first floor, there are four bedrooms, with ensuite shower room to the master bedroom, and a family bathroom. An early viewing is recommended.

£385,000

Suntrap House

A unique Tudor style detached property set in a secluded location on a plot of 0.47 acres. Accommodation comprises entrance hall, lounge/dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, study, second lounge, snug and downstairs WC on the ground floor. To the first floor are four bedrooms, the master benefiting from a four piece ensuite bathroom, and a family bathroom. Off from the landing are French doors opening to a balcony overlooking the garden. Outside, the walled garden is private and enclosed with a decent lawn area, tree house and a large decked patio with a hot tub. A summerhouse is situated further down the garden near to the double garage. Parking is provided via electric double gates to a concrete driveway allowing off road parking for several vehicles.

ADVERTORIAL

MOVE IN WITH JUST A FIVE PER CENT DEPOSIT THIS WEEKEND

Homebuyers are being given the chance to move into a brand new home from David Wilson South Midlands with just a five per cent deposit thanks to the housebuilder's popular Head Start payment deferral scheme.

And interested homehunters are being invited along to an exclusive Head Start event this weekend, the 16th and 17th October, to find out more about this fantastic scheme.

Head Start is a payment deferral scheme that allows David Wilson customers to move into a new home for initially just 85 per cent of the asking price. The remaining 15 per cent is funded through a deferred David Wilson loan which is payable either in ten years time or when the property sells, whichever comes sooner.

Homebuyers who choose to take advantage of this scheme can secure a new home for just £152,995 meaning buyers at Woodcote Park can move into a brand new home with a deposit of just five per cent, which works out as £8,999.

Jackie Day, Sales Director at David Wilson, comments "Increasing numbers of our customers who are struggling to find a 20 per cent deposit are taking advantage of shared equity deals like Head Start to help facilitate a move.

"With this scheme you can initially move into a new home for just 85 per cent of the full purchase price meaning you only need to find a deposit of £8,999 to buy one of our stunning new homes."

The Head Start event is being held this weekend, the 16th and 17th October, between 11am and 6pm.

Woodcote Park is located on Towcester Road on the edge of the quaint village of Silverstone and takes its name from the well known Woodcote corner on the nearby race track.

It is an exclusive collection of just 45 two-, three- and four-bedroom homes which are all unique to this development and have been named after famous racing tracks in recognition of its proximity to the home of the British Grand Prix.

The development benefits from the amenities that the village houses which includes a butchers shop, post office, convenience store and public house. The towns of Brackley and Towcester are just a short drive away whilst both Milton Keynes and Northampton are easily accessible too.

To find out more please call the sales hotline on 0844 811 4477, available daily from 8am to 9pm, or log onto the website at www.dwh.co.uk

MiSWAP Part Exchange* and Deposit Match† are available at Woodland Park.

0800 840 8646 | www.millerhomes.co.uk/recipe

†Miller homes will pay up to 5% of the purchase price of the selected plot, to match the customer's deposit, as agreed at point of reservation. To be eligible for the deposit match the customer must be able to prove at point of settlement that they are in possession of the agreed deposit amount. Customer must pay the standard reservation charge on their selected plot. Deposit match value will be deducted from total sale price on legal completion. *MiSwap is the name of Miller Homes' standard Part Exchange scheme and therefore is not a like for like exchange; the term 'swap' refers to Part Exchange. *†All offers are plot specific and subject to Miller Homes' standard terms and conditions. Offers may be withdrawn without notice and prices and availability are correct at time of going to print. ††Miller Homes will pay up to £600 towards the cost of mortgage payment protection insurance cover provided that cover is arranged through a Miller Homes recommended independent Mortgage Advisor. Payment will be made following legal completion direct to the insurance provider. £500 Marks & Spencer vouchers will be given following legal completion. †††These offers may be withdrawn at any time. No cash alternatives are available. Photography represents a typical Miller Homes interior.

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL
ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 - SECTION 14
THE NORTHAMPTONSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL
(BRINGTON ROAD, LONG BUCKBY)
(TEMPORARY PROHIBITION OF THROUGH TRAFFIC) ORDER 2010

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Northamptonshire County Council intend, not less than seven days from the date of this Notice, to make an Order the effect of which will be to prohibit traffic from proceeding along that length of Brington Road, Long Buckby as set out below.

LENGTH OF ROAD TO WHICH RESTRICTION APPLIES: That length of Brington Road, Long Buckby from junction of Skin Yard to the junction of the Market Place.

REASONS FOR RESTRICTION: The restriction is required for installation of new water supply.

PERIOD OF CLOSURE: The proposed Order will come into effect on 27th October 2010 and will continue in force for a period of eighteen months. An application may be made for the approval of the Secretary of State for Transport for the Order to be extended if this proves necessary. However, the restriction specified will have effect only at such times and to such an extent as is indicated by the display of signs prescribed by the Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 2002.

EXPECTED DURATION: It is expected that the road will be restricted until 29th October 2010.

ALTERNATIVE ROUTES: For traffic heading south use High Street and Hall Drive. The route is vice versa for traffic heading north.

PUBLIC NOTICE RELATING TO POS REVIEW – PUBLIC CONSULTATION

WNDC PLANNING OBLIGATIONS STRATEGY (POS) REVIEW

Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act, 2004
The Town and Country Planning (Local Development)(England) Regulations 2004 (as amended)

The above document was adopted by WNDC as a material consideration in the determination of planning applications in December 2008. The POS sets out the Corporation's approach in relation to securing appropriate levels of developer contributions towards necessary infrastructure required to mitigate the impact of development. It sets out a 'standard charge' approach based on a discounted standard charge (DSC) taking into account development viability. It is applicable to all residential development (on a per unit basis) with commercial development negotiated on a case by case basis.

WNDC has undertaken a review of the POS and is now seeking comments on the revised documentation which consists of the following:

1. The main Draft POS document, incorporating Annex A (infrastructure list) and Annex B (Interim Strategic Infrastructure Schedule)
2. Supporting Technical Documents consisting of the following:
   a) Relevant Policy and Statute Context
   b) Viability Review Topic Paper
   c) Deferred Contributions Topic Paper
   d) Guidelines for Viability Assessments
   e) Construction Futures Topic Paper
   f) Cohesive Communities Topic Paper
   g) Triggers for infrastructure provision
   h) Community Centres Specification
   i) Police Contributions Topic Paper
   j) Monitoring Contributions Topic Paper
3. POS Evidence Schedule
4. POS Consultation Statement
5. POS Board Report (6 July 2010)

All of the above documents can be viewed on WNDC's website from 15th October 2010 via the following link: http://www.wndc.org.uk/planning-services/policy-and-procedure/current-consultations/ or can be viewed at the WNDC offices (address below) during office hours – 10 - 12am & 2 – 4 pm Monday to Friday.

You are therefore invited to make comments on the revised documents and general approach proposed to be taken. Comments should be made by 12th November 2010 and should preferably be made using the consultation questionnaire response (available via the above link or in the offices).

All comments should be marked West Northamptonshire Development Corporation Planning Obligations strategy (POS) Review and can be submitted as follows:

By post to – WNDC, PO BOX 622, Franklins Gardens, Northampton, NN5 5WR;

By fax to – 01604 586648;

By email to – planning@wndc.org.uk

W.Grose

Northampton BEACON bingo

W.Grose 500 Club Winner: Mrs Stewart (Left)

ANOTHER winner has been rewarded for their loyalty in a special campaign at W.Grose of Kingsthorpe. The car showroom has launched a loyalty scheme for its Motability customers under the name W.Grose 500 Club. Their membership automatically enters them into a monthly prize draw to win £50 which increases to £250 in the December prize fund. Barry Berkshire, the Motability Specialist, said: "All our loyal Motability customers have been sent a 500 Club card (which has to be registered) with a unique reference number. Each month we will have a draw and once a month they can win £50 or £250 in December. It's a reward for their loyalty. We came up with this as a bit of a reward for staying with us."

The Seventh draw has taken place and been won by Mrs Stewart of Long Buckby who has won £50, a meal for four and an evening of bingo from Beacon Bingo Northampton.

The Motability scheme was set up by the Government to provide an allowance for disabled people. Those entitled to it can surrender their allowance for a car on the Motability Car Hire Scheme.

Sutil suffers Suzuka oil leak set-back

FORMULA ONE

FORCE India recorded their first double DNF of the season as both Tonio Liuzzi and Adrian Sutil failed to finish Sunday's Japanese Grand Prix.

With qualifying being postponed until the morning of race day due to heavy rain on the Saturday, the pair did not make it past Q1 after struggling on the soft tyres.

They both gained places from the start, but Liuzzi's race was ended at the first corner after he was involved in a collision with Ferrari driver Felipe Massa.

Team-mate Sutil (pictured) was running in the top ten before suffering an oil leak on lap 45 that forced him to retire and cost him any chance of a points finish.

He said: "Coming up to the end of the race, I went into the 130R corner and the tyres started to slide around and smoke started to come out the back of the car.

"I felt the car let go and then that was it – I had to bring it into the pits. At the time we didn't know what was wrong, but when I stopped we could see oil coming out of the car."

Meanwhile Liuzzi is determined not to dwell on his early exit after failing to complete race distance for the second grand prix in a row.

"At the time, I was a passenger really," he said describing the accident, which was caused by Massa.

"I had a great start and passed five or six cars before the first corner and thought I was pretty safe but then when I went into turn one I saw Felipe coming up on the inside – I don't know if he had broken something on the car, but he seemed to come into my side like a bullet. I don't think he was in control of the car at the time, but it's a shame as it's another first corner accident and then retirement for me."

NORTHAMPTON Spencer were held to a 1-1 draw away to last season's Division One runners-up Peterborough Northern Star.

Spencer had run out winners when the sides met seven days earlier and after a goalless first half they went ahead through Phil Cassidy on 62 minutes.

But Jon Stead's penalty 14 minutes from time earned the hosts a point, with Spencer now seventh in the table.

Ryan Oliver's hat-trick saw Cogenhoe United go down 3-2 away to Deeping Rangers, despite a late fightback from the visitors.

Oliver's goals on 32 and 45 minutes put Deeping two goals up at the interval, and he added a third six minutes into the second half.

Strikes from Elliott Sandy and Steve Blackwood in the final 20 minutes made for a nervy ending, but Rangers held on for the win.

DIVISION ONE

JOHN Dawson got the only goal of the game as Sileby Rangers moved second in the table with a 1-0 win at home to Rothwell Town.

The Bones had not been beaten in the league before this match, but Dawson's 65th minute strike ensured the hosts were victorious.

That win moved them above Bugbrooke St Michaels, who were on the wrong end of a 6-1 thrashing at Burton Park Wanderers.

Leigh Chapman put the home side in front after ten minutes, with Ross Arundell replying for the Badgers on the half hour.

But Louis Dupree restored Burton's lead just before the break and two more from Chapman, plus goals for Nathan Wills and Chris Davies completed the rout.

ON Chenecks went down 2-0 away to previously winless Wellingborough Whitworth, who had lost their first four games of the season.

Both goals came in the first half, with Matt Freeman opening the scoring on ten minutes and Anthony Sharp adding a second on 35 minutes.

DESBOROUGH Town shocked Northampton Spencer as they picked up their first win of the season with a 3-1 victory at Waterworks Field.

The hosts went ahead courtesy of Robbie Bushell's 20th minute own goal and increased their lead with a Danny Rodgers penalty on 40 minutes.

Steve Jelley pulled one back for Spencer three minutes later, but a second penalty from substitute Iain Blakie secured the win for Desborough.

Cogenhoe United battled back from being behind three times to earn a 3-3 draw at home to Rothwell Corinthians.

Corinths were in front five minutes in thanks to Shaun Morris, but Elliott Sandy responded for the hosts six minutes later.

Tony Lelapi's 29th minute strike put Rothwell ahead at the break, only for debutant Nicky Ling to even things up again on 50 minutes.

The visitors took the lead again on 63 minutes, with Dan Morris on target. However, the Cooks salvaged a draw thanks to Dan Thomason's 74th minute goal.

Jim waves away as off day in edgy

BY MARC BAZELEY

'NOTHING Without Labour' is the motto of Northampton Saints. And after they ground out a victory at home to Castres Olympique in their Heineken Cup opener it never seemed more appropriate.

The French outfit came with a definite game plan to disrupt and bully the hosts – mostly within the laws of the game – and it almost worked for them as they held an 8-5 lead at half time.

But the stuttering Saints, who saw 14 points go begging in the first half due to missed penalty and conversion attempts, managed to turn things around and take the victory.

"It was a tough game," said director of rugby Jim Mallinder, adding: "Castres played well, they were very physical and we didn't play well.

"You want to get on the front foot and our line-out didn't function as well as it has done previously.

"We made a lot of breaks, particularly in the first half, and I think if we could have finished more than the Bruce Reihana try then we could have got ahead."

Reihana's unconverted try on 31 minutes had levelled things up after Joe Tekori had powered through the home side's defence ten minutes earlier.

But the former All Black winger was struggling with the boot. Having remained as kicker after an impressive showing against Exeter Chiefs in the league the week before, Reihana missed three penalties and failed to convert his own try.

That looked as if it may prove costly when Cameron McIntyre's drop goal edged Castres three points in front with six minutes remaining in the first half. The visitors then had Matthieu Bonello sin-binned less than a minute later, with Shane Geraghty stepping up to take the kick this time.

However, he fluffed his effort and the ball dropped short of the posts.

Northampton trailed at the break, but within three minutes of the restart Ben Foden scored the try that ultimately swung the game in favour of the Saints as he raced in from the edge of the Castres 22 after the home side had won back the ball from the kick-off.

Geraghty converted and added a penalty on 63 minutes in response to one from Pierre Bernard, in at full back for feared place kicker Romain Teulet.

Bernard, who missed four out of six shots at goal, landed another nine minutes from time, with Saints replacement Stephen Myler doing likewise on 78 minutes to give his side a 18-14 win.

Mallinder downplayed the inconsistency of his side's kicking, just saying: "It's frustrating because Bruce kicked four out of five the previous week, so did Shane the week before and here they both had off days."

Now Northampton face a difficult away trip to Edinburgh, who did not lose at home in the competition last season and ran Cardiff Blues close before going down 18-17 away in their first Pool One game.

Mallinder said: "Maybe we are just trying to play a little bit too much and forcing that pass whereas sometimes, particularly with the new laws, what you need to do is keep hold of the ball and look to score in the next phase.

"We're disappointed with the way that we played, but we have come away with a win.

"We are confident that we can go to Edinburgh and get another one."

Northampton are hopeful that Christian Day will be back for Saturday's trip to Murrayfield after he missed out against Castres through illness.

Foden also left the field last Friday with a suspected recurrence of his ankle sprain, but was due to sit out this weekend's match anyway on an EPS break.

Pacey-led Silson start season with record score

ATHLETICS

SILSON Joggers opened the five-race Chilton League with their highest-ever points total as the winter season got underway in Oxford on Saturday.

The team, who entered a total of 42 athletes, racked up 1,527 points on the testing course that runs from the Horspath Road athletics track to Shotover Plain.

Andy Pacey led home the men's team (pictured) in a time of 34:01 to claim 54th place. Following Pacey was Chris Wood in 34:48 who was closely followed by mens' team captain Simon Woodward in 35 minutes dead. Mark Armstrong was next in 35:42.

Selflessly taking a break from his marathon preparation to help the club was Jim Darcy, Silson's next finisher in 37:08. There were welcome returns to racing from Matt Wootton (38:22) and Tom Phelps (38:46). Between those two, cross country regular Kev Reboul had his usual strong run to finish in 38:43.

Ninth finisher for Silson was Andy Kirk in 39:02 whilst Dan Taylor was the final scorer for the club, just six seconds behind Kirk.

Of the 26 men racing for Silson, there were notable cross country debuts for Jonathon Gale (43:00), Richard Davies (44:30) and John Adams (51:11). Heather Cooke was Silson's first senior female home, putting in a strong performance to finish 28th in 27:10.

Natasha King was next to finish with her 30:17 effort, whilst Sue Clayton-Drabble was seven seconds behind King in 55th position.

The important fourth scorer for the womens' team was Chiltern League regular Madeline Moutrie in 31:10.

Layne Wray continued her run of fine form to be Silson's first finisher in 31st position with a time of 13:10 in the under-13 girls' race. Her sister Neave was next to finish in 16:30, running with Annabel O'Reilly (16:31). Eleanor Rees was one place behind O'Reilly in 17:21.

Silson's sole competitor in the under-13 boys' race was Henry Barnes, finishing in 43rd position in 13:24.

Chiltern League regular Madeline Smee was 47th in the under-15 girls' race in 19:55 whilst John Olejnik had a strong race to finish 42nd in the 4201m under-15 boys' race.

The next league fixture sees the club travelling to Watford in November.

BOXING

ANOTHER third belt has been added to the fight card for Graham Earl's Judgement Night on Saturday at Northampton Cricket Ground.

The former world champion's second show already had one of his hot prospects, Jay Morris, defending his British Masters light welterweight title against home town puncher Gavin Deacon.

Now the co-headlining event will see the vacant super middleweight British Masters and the Southern Area titles up for grabs as Paul Morby – another fighter managed by Earl – goes up against Matthew Barney.

The southpaw from Portsmouth was originally due to battle Steve Timms but he had to withdraw due to a back injury, so Barney – a Southampton lad – is travelling back from Canada to take part in what promises to be a fiery Hampshire derby-cum-title fight. The two fighters were set to meet a fortnight ago but due to a hand injury Morby had to pull out leaving Barney with no fight.

Earl said: "This will be an explosive battle as the winner of the title will go on to bigger and better things in the super middleweight division. We're excited."

Tickets are still available for the night which features a host of fighters from Earl's House of Champions stable. Call 01582 451117 for ringside (£50), seating (£35) and standing/balcony (£30).

OLD NORTHAMPTONIANS 25
LUTON 25

MATT Ireland ran in a hat-trick of tries, but three sin-binnings for the hosts proved costly as Old Northamptonians had to settle for a draw at home to Luton.

Winger Ireland got two tries early in the match, with Aiden Kenny kicking a penalty for Luton.

Alex Rose converted one and added two penalties, but ONs soon found themselves down to 14 men following the first yellow card.

Chris Snelling punished them with a try, only for the home side to move further ahead when Ireland went over for his third which Rose converted to make it 25-8 at the break.

But with ONs having two more men sent to the sin-bin, Luton were allowed back into the match.

Mike Weston grabbed a try, as did Kenny who duly converted his own effort.

James Spiers then went over right on the stroke of full time to level things up, but Kenny missed the conversion and it finished all square.

With this match also doubling as an East Midlands Cup tie, extra time was played to determine which would progress. Luton ran out 49-25 winners to book their place in the semi-finals

NORTHAMPTON Rugby League Club added to their accolades after being named Community Club of the Year at the Northampton Borough Council Sports Awards.

A 25 strong contingent of players, parents and coaches made the trip to the event at the Masonic Hall in the town where player Matt Meek – now with Super League side Harlequins RL – also picked up the Sportsman of the Year award.

The club were shortlisted in three other categories, with the first team being nominated for Team of the Year, Will Lovell being nominated for Young Sportsman of the Year and under-12s coach Gary Patchett being nominated for Coach of the Year.

The two awards brings the total of team and individual awards for the club to ten since they were founded in 2007.

Sammo left with sour taste after Beckwith sent off and late McKenzie goal ruled out

FOOTBALL

IT is probably fair to say that David Phillips will not be on Ian Sampson's Christmas card list after the Northampton Town manager blasted the referee following Saturday's 1-0 defeat at Cheltenham Town.

The West Sussex whistle-blower sent off Dean Beckwith 22 minutes in for a stamp on Sean Jeffers and also ruled out a possible late equaliser from substitute Leon McKenzie after his assistant had flagged for offside.

Cobblers boss Sampson has rarely complained about match officials in the past, even when his frustrations with decisions have been evident.

However, he did not hide his feelings after the defeat – which leaves his side 22nd in League Two – saying: "Overall I thought it was a poor performance from the officials, but we have just got to keep performing at the level we have done and things will turn for us.

"I wasn't watching what happened when Dean Beckwith got sent off, but the referee said he stamped on their player.

"We kept going towards the end and Leon McKenzie didn't think he was offside when he scored, so that is disappointing."

Any chance of an appeal against Beckwith's red card has been ruled out as the DVD of the match did not show the incident.

The defender will now miss the next three games through suspension, having only just returned from injury.

In the end, it was a strike from Brian Smikle on the hour that settled the contest in favour of Cheltenham, while Sampson was frustrated by what he felt was some poor finishing from his side.

"We had some great goalscoring opportunities and we won't get better chances in a game than we had," he said.

"We should have been 3-0 up at half-time but we need to be more clinical in front of goal. We had two one-on-ones and their keeper made a fantastic save from Billy McKay.

"It's very frustrating because I don't think they caused us any real problems and they only had one real chance in the game."

That win moves Cheltenham up into the play-off places, although Northampton are only seven points behind them despite hovering just above the League Two relegation zone.

The Cobblers face bottom of the table Hereford United at Sixfields this Saturday, who are without a manager following Simon Davey's sacking last week.

Sampson is desperate for his side to start producing the results that have matched their actual performances, after conceding that their position in the league is far from ideal.

"We have got to keep believing in what we are doing," he said, adding: "I definitely think we are going in the right direction and we just have to keep going.

"Macclesfield apart, our performances have been good and if we can maintain that level of performance then I'm sure things will turn for us, sooner rather than later."

Lee eyes battle with Blair at Murrayfield

BY MARC BAZELEY

marc.bazeley@HPnorthants.co.uk

LEE Dickson's last appearance at Murrayfield may have seen him pulling on a Scotland shirt, but the scrum half is hoping the English invaders will be victorious on Saturday when Northampton Saints take on Edinburgh.

It is the first time for ten years that the two sides have faced each other in the Heineken Cup, with the Scots beating then-defending champions Northampton in both the home and away games that season.

Dickson, who qualified for Scotland through his father and represented their under-19s before switching allegiance to England, is excited just to be part of European rugby's premier competition.

"I love everything about the Heineken Cup – it's the biggest challenge other than playing for England," he said

"I'm really looking forward to it, everyone in the squad is buzzing and we've got to get the win."

He has no regrets about choosing to play for the 'Auld Enemy', which this summer saw the 25-year-old's fine form rewarded with a place in the England Saxons' Churchill Cup winning squad.

The road to England recognition has been a long and, at times, frustrating one for Dickson, but his focus is firmly on the Saints and helping them achieve their ambitions in Europe and the Aviva Premiership.

Since signing from Newcastle Falcons in 2008 he has made the number nine shirt his own and was again in the thick of things as the Saints ground out an 18-14 win at home to Castres Olympique in last Friday's Heineken Cup opener.

"We won and that's the main thing," said Dickson, adding: "We said before that the Heineken Cup is a tough tournament, so you've got to win your home games and we've done that. We'll go back and have a look at the video to see what mistakes we made. We made quite a few, but that's rugby.

UP FOR THE FIGHT: Lee Dickson and Castres' French international Ibrahim Diarra clash off the ball in Saints' 18-14 Heineken Cup victory on Friday – Picture by David Ikin

"I wouldn't say the level of performance has dropped off. We're making those breaks, but it's just the little 50-50 offloads that we need to cut out.

"The level of performance and the energy from the boys is there. At the end of the day, we have won not playing pretty – that's the sign of a good team. We've done that and we move on to Edinburgh away where we will try to pick up a win."

Friday's encounter was a tough one to be a scrum half, with Castres trying their spoiling tactics at the breakdown to prevent the hosts getting quick ball.

And having been up against French international Sebastien Tillous-Borde in that match, Dickson is likely to be testing himself against Scotland's Mike Blair at Murrayfield.

But he is not phased by that prospect, saying: "As to probably playing against Mike on Saturday, every week I play against someone who is right up there with the best.

"I've played against Ben Youngs and Danny Care in the last couple of weeks. Against Castres it was a French scrum half and next it is likely to be Mike, all I know is that he is a great player."
